

Don Walter Clagg

January 20, 1936 - December 21, 2019

Don Walter Clagg was born on January 20, 1936, to Andrew Jackson Clagg and Ida Sexton (Southard) Clagg, in Lindsay, Oklahoma. He passed from this life on December 21, 2019, in Chickasha, Oklahoma, at the age of 83.

Don has been a resident of Lindsay for his whole life. He spent his working life mostly in the oilfield industry. He also was a pawn shop owner.

Don met and married the love of his life Glenna Rose Clagg, in Payne, Oklahoma, on October 23, 1954. Together they had 47 wonderful years together filled with love until her passing in July of 2002.

Don truly lived life to the fullest through many different hobbies and family gatherings. His hobbies took him all over the place such as Las Vegas to “try his luck” or Colorado to pan for gold. From metal detecting, fishing for catfish, honey gathering from beehives, and wine making in his closet Don wasn’t capable of sitting idle for too long. He enjoyed spirited conversation with everyone he met, while leaving a lasting memory of his kindness and his funny sense of humor. If you ever played dominoes with Don, you would remember his tenacity for winning and always saying to his dominoes “What a gathering!” He was hardly ever bested during a dominoes game with his family, but if he was, you knew the next round he would win with vengeance and grace. One of Don’s enjoyable hobbies was tending his garden and cooking. He won many awards for the different pies he made and concocted different recipes he created for his family to enjoy. From fish fries to peanut picking parties, Don’s favorite past time was a gathering with his favorite people, all of his family. A few years ago, Don rededicated his life to Christ to become a fervent Christian who loved attending Criner Baptist Church and always prayed for his family’s wellbeing. Don will gather now in heaven with his family that proceeded him in death while he waits for us to join him. And we all know he is waiting to greet us and say “What a gathering!”

Left to cherish his memory is his sons, Damon Clagg of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Marlin Clagg of Blanchard, Oklahoma, a brother, Marion Clagg of Scurry, Texas, his grandchildren, Angela & husband Tom Murray of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Stephanie Lowe of Blanchard, Oklahoma, and Scotty Clagg, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and two great grandchildren, Jovi and Joslin Lowe of Blanchard, Oklahoma.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Glenna Clagg, his parents Andrew and Ida Clagg, a son, Aaron Clagg, four brothers, Arthur Clagg, Ray Clagg, Paul Clagg, and Roy Clagg, a sister, Virginia Herrin, and a daughter-in-law, Janis Clagg.

A Graveside service to honor the life of Don is set to begin at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, December 27, 2019 at the Green Hill Cemetery in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Services are under the direction of Scott and Angel Wilbourn of Boydston-Wilbourn Funeral Home in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made to the family online at <http://www.boydstonfuneralhome.com>

“ A very nice tribute to Uncle Don. All the Clagg boys were devoted to their sister, but Don especially spoiled her, as Nanette said. He also treated our Dad as one of his brothers. The Clagg gatherings at holidays were truly great times. I will miss Uncle Don.

“ You all are in my thoughts and prayers. He was such a sweet man. We became friends, he would come to my little restaurant he would eat a little, we would just talk. He will be missed.

“ So beautifully said. He will be so missed here. It was a joy getting to really know him after we moved Mama here. Loved him so much. Watching her interact with her brothers was something else! She was always the “big” sister and gave her advise and nudging when needed. He seemed to adore her and spoiled her at every turn. Knowing he prayed for us all by name is very telling of the work God did in his life. Looking forward to seeing him again and never saying goodbye. Much love, Nanette and Jeff Shultz
