“ Hi, I know you don't know me, but I wanted to send my deepest sympathies to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. Amy is such a beautiful girl. These 3 kids in this accident has really touched my heart. I feel your pain. My daughter and her best friend were also killed in the same spot, just only on other side of highway, 33 months ago. I just wanted to tell you that I understand what you are going through. My girls were also hit by a semi truck and killed instantly. I really don't know what to say or anything, but wanted to let you know I added your daughter to a virtual cemetery online at www.findagrave.com. I wanted to add it so everyone could know another beautiful angel. If you would like me to take it off or change it or anything just let me know. It has been a great comfort to me to be able to write little notes and leave tokens for my daughter there, if you would like to have it where you can write whatever you like on it just email me and I will be glad to change it, so that you would be the owner. May God bless you all.

“ Amy one of the sweetest people that I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. She never showed partiality, and was never quick to judge. She always had a smile and was always having a good time. She will be greatly missed, but her memory will live in all who had the fortune to know her. To the family, remember that the Lord is your refuge, He will never forsake you. My thoughts and prayers are with each one of you as you greive the loss of your loved one, and as heaven rejoices the gain of one of Gods children.

“ Brenda & family,

Brenda, I can't imagine the sorrow that is in your heart. I remember how much you talked about her and Austin when we worked at Storm. They were only small babies then. She had grown into a lovely young lady. I just wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. God give you strength.

“ I knew Amy only from a few classes that we shared together in high school. Even though we did not have a lot of close encounters she was obviously very sweet and special even to me a mere stranger. I did however know John and I wanted to give him (and the rest of the family) my love and prayers. I have fought the battle that you are now facing and I hope that you can all be brave and preserve all of the precious memories that you have of Amy as the priceless treasures that they are. You will be in my prayers.

“ Dealing with this has definatly been one of the most difficult events in my life. I can't even imagine what you must be going through. I have soo many great memories with her, I just wanted to tell you how sorry I am. She was smart, talented, funny, and an exceptional friend. I love the summers we spent together, and will cherish her memory everyday. I promise you that she has made an impact on this world by touching the people around her. My thoughts and heart are with you.

“ Amy was one of my closest friends that i graduated with. We had several great memories including going to our junior prom together or just simply riding around town singing our favorite songs. We did alot of arguing though most of it was not too serious. Amy's smile and laughter will always be with me.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Amy in yearbook. She was always such a great person to be around. She was always encouraging, friendly, and was never too busy for those closest to her. I cannot even begin to know of your pain during this loss, but I know God does. It was such a shock to hear of the loss of such a young wonderful life. I will always remember her smile, as she always had one on. I pray and will continue to pray that God will bless and comfort you and your families during such a hard time.
