“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family of Barbara. Barbara and I were very good friends in high school. We were in vocal music together. She was such a kind and caring person and had the most wonderful sense of humor. Unfortunately, we lost touch after high school. I was invited to eat dinner with the Halls one evening after school. We had hamburgers, and Barbara told me we were eating wild boar. I didn't know what to say, so I said, "well it tastes good to me"! Then she pointed to a mounted wild boar head hanging on the wall and said, "That's him up there"! I guess I had an awful look on my face, because she and her Mom and Dad exploded with laughter! Barbara would get a kick out of knowing I remembered that. May your wonderful memories of Barbara comfort you all.
