“ I remember Bernice well. She was beautiful. I particularly remember some lovely and intricate Barbie clothes that she made for LuAnn. I saw them at my Grandmother's house (Ruby Beverly). I have remembered them for many years -- and often thought of the love that went into the making of those beautiful doll clothes. I think they may have been loaned to my Uncle Boe's granddaughter. I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ LouAnn, Jim and Family; I'm really sorry to hear about Bernice. She and Kenneth were two of the good ones; so nice, so friendly. I always enjoyed working for them when they had a little project that needed done. They can now be together again. I wish you peace as you process her departure. That's what she would want for you. God bless always \ud83d\ude4f\ud83c\udffb. Glen
