“ To all the Children of John and Bessie,

I was saddened to hear of Bessie's passing. Bessie always had a happy heart, and it showed in her big, beautiful smile.

Her love of the Lord and His Church could be easily noticed. Knowing John and Bessie will always be a pleasant part of my childhood memories. I hope you will all rejoice for her as she moves on to a place where no tears or sorrows will be known. You're a wonderful family.....God Bless you all!

“ I will always appreciate Aunt Bessie and Uncle John for all the kindnesses and encouragement they were to me during my early pre teenage years. Many times they invited me to go places with them such as ballgames at Cox City. The first time I was out of Oklahoma until Wesley and I married was when I went to Charlie, TX to visit a relative. These memories will always be on my mind.

We love you all,

Wes and Lorella
