“ Good-bye Bill...we went to school together for seem like a 100 years. But I dont remember ever hearing anything bad, or negetive about Bill. I like Bill was born, and raised here in Lindsay. But Korea, and a job in Dallas, Texas, took me away for 35 years, but I always had respect for Bill. His father in law, Pete Snelson, and I were friends too. Now Pete was a Character, dont know if any of it ever rubbed off on Bill or not. If it did, it didnt show up very well. Yes I liked Pete too. Just kidding.

“ As so many in the past God has called anyoher fine man home. It's not so much as to what you have, but more like how you live your live. We all live o grace alone and Mr. Bill Wihoit had left this Earth as we know it, with many stone turn. For that God had open the Gates of Heaven and I am certain Bill has found a great deal of peace.
