“Phil, Christina, Melissa, Daniel, and Julee, we are deeply sorry for the loss of your beloved Bridget. We feel fortunate in having known her, even if briefly, because she was the type of person that would, immediately upon seeing her, bring a smile with her warmth and good cheer. They just don't come better than her. The world has lost a fantastic woman, just as you have obviously lost your irreplaceable mother and wife. Our hearts and thoughts are with you in this time of mourning and remembrance.

“ Philip, Christina, Julee, Daniel, Melissa & Chris, BJ, Brenda, Belinda, Darrell & Patricia: You couldn't help but befriend Bridget when she came to Mulhall-Orlando. She was always the sweetest person, and never said anything negative about anyone. She had the most infectious laugh and smile. I loved spending time with her, and learned a great deal about how to treat others by her example. She will leave a chasm that will never be filled. I choose to celebrate her life, because it was truly a blessing to know her. My prayers are with you all. ~Love, Clara B. Orr
