“ Pat, I don't know the words to say to you that will help you at this time, the best that I can say is God has made him well and is with out pain now , and he will be there for you and your family during this time. Let his word comfort you and all those around you. You and your family are also in my thoughts and prayers and if there is anything I can do for you please just let me know. With Love and Friendship and God bless and be with you.
