Carolyn met and later married the love of her life Thomas Leon Dover on June 20, 1980 in Newcastle, Oklahoma. They had a wonderful 38 years of love and adventure. They had the kind of love that only happens once in a lifetime, the kind of love people search for their whole life. They raised two children together; Harold Dean and Stephanie Dawn. Carolyn was a loving wife and caring mother and spent her life putting their needs before her own.

Carolyn had many things that she filled her time with. In her younger years she enjoyed getting out and going "crawfish" fishing and she also had a knack for hand-making pottery. She had a beautiful voice that was requested to sing during church, and passed the love of music on to her children and grandchildren. She loved to shop and garage sale; she enjoyed the thrill of finding a good sale. She also liked to keep her mind sharp by doing crossword puzzles and watching TV, Animal Planet was her favorite but she was also a fan of medical dramas and Law & Order. Her greatest treasure in life was her children and grandchildren and she cherished every moment that she was able to spend with them.

Carolyn was a wonderful lady that touched many lives. She lived a wonderful example to her family and friends. She will truly be missed by her loved ones and all those who knew her.
