“ It's so sad to see the passing of people who were important in our lives while growing up in Lindsay. What would we have done without Clara's dress shop? My sympathies to all of you, her family.

“ To Clara and Casy's family.....I am sorry to hear of your loss. However, your loss is heaven's gain. What a special lady Clara was. She never meant to stand out, but did anyway. That little light of hers DID shine. Some of my fondest memories of her was when I washed windows for her at the shop, and then would go up stairs to sort boxes for her and the girls. She loved to visit, and what a wonderful belly laugh she had. Clara will be missed by a lot of people. She gracefully touched so many.... a true servant of the Lord in every sence of the word. May God bless you all during this difficult time....'till we meet again.....Glen

“ When I think of church Clara comes to mind. She has always been here. She was a good friend to mother, Bessie Hanley. She along with my Aunt Mable taught the cradle roll class for many years, teaching my children. Clara was a great example of the worthy woman of Proverbs 31. We will miss you Clara.Geneva and Ray Owens

“ Clara was such a sweet, giving person. Over 48 years ago, I remember her giving us a bunch of fruit jars for canning. Which helped us out so much since we were newly married. She was just like a member of the family. She was always so close to my mother Bessie and my aunts Jewel, Ellen, Mary Ruth, and Mabel. I'll always have a special memory of her.

“ Clara was my Sunday school teacher when I was just a little guy. Her son John, and I grew up together and I knew Clara as almost a second mother. I always got a hug from her on Sunday mornings and she was a great business lady operating her clothing store for many years as only a Christian lady could. Clara will be missed by all who knew her. John, I'm so sorry to hear about losing Clara, but she was a great Christian example to all who knew her and you should be proud of her for all the many people she had such a great influence on. My prayers are with you all.
