

Clyde Adams

August 14, 1914 - December 24, 2004

Clyde Adams passed away on December 24, 2004 at the age of 90 in Lindsay, Oklahoma. He was born on August 14, 1914 to Ambrose and Lula May Adams in Mulberry, Arkansas.

Clyde married Bertha "Bertie" Beattie on February 5, 1937 in Weleetka, Oklahoma. Together they moved to Lindsay, Oklahoma in 1949 to make this their home and raise their three daughters. Clyde worked as a District Gauger for Sun Oil Company for 47 years. Clyde was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Clyde served his country during World War II in the Navy as a motor machinist. He was a member of the American Legion and loved to fish, hunt, attend church and Sunday school, and spend time with his grandchildren.

Clyde is preceded in death by his beloved Bertie, and his parents, one brother, Koble Adams, and one sister, Jewel Slaughter.

He is survived by his daughters, Clyda Berdell and her husband, Jim Mihalhauser of Austin, Texas, Louise and her husband, Bruce Bullock of Columbia Missouri, Gloria Jean and her husband, Ed Wendling of Blanchard, Oklahoma. Clyde is also survived by eight grandchildren, Andrea Mihalhauser, Amy Mihalhauser, Athena Stolzer, Angela Splan, Roland Bullock, Tim Stucks, Travis Stucks, Amanda Taylor, and fifteen great-grandchildren.

Services for Clyde will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church, Lindsay, Oklahoma at 10:00 a.m. on December 28, 2004. He will be laid to rest at the Hillcrest cemetery in Weleetka, Oklahoma.

Funeral services are under the direction of B. G. Boydston Funeral Home, Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the Adams family at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.
