Edith Williams was born to Jesse Lee and Bessie (Smith) Lee, on November 11, 1935, in Lindsay, Oklahoma. She passed from this life on January 30, 2025.

Edith was a resident of Lindsay, Oklahoma, all of her life. She was a Christian and attended the Full Gospel Church. Edith was a prayer warrior and greatly enjoyed attending tent revivals.

Edith endeavored to live her life to the fullest. She found joy in life's simple pleasures, like going junking and picking up pecans. Edith loved spending time outdoors, and enjoyed camping. Her greatest joy in life was the time that she got to spend with them, and she did so as often as possible.

Edith is survived by her sons, Wesley Marsh of Chickasha, Oklahoma, and A.L. Slay of Houston, Texas, her daughters, Aorlleen Cox of Lindsay, Oklahoma, Connie Slay of Dallas, Texas, Alene Liddick of Marlow, Oklahoma, Becky Williams of Rush Springs, Oklahoma, and Ruth Ann Williams, her sister, Pearley Cargill, her ten grandchildren, her eight great-grandchildren, along with many other relatives and friends.
