“ To the Luttrell family, Your dad and grandfather was a very special man. He was such an inspiration to me when he served as my deacon at Calvary. He was such a gentle and caring man. Now he is at home with Jesus. My prayers are with you all at this time.

“ Dear Marquetta, I'm so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I know that his passing will leave an empty space in your heart. I pray you find comfort in the memories of the times you shared with him. Even though we may not see each other as often as I would like, I think of you often and I have enjoyed your friendship through the years. If you need anything please let me know. With all my love... Deana
