

Emory Haygood

February 20, 1917 - May 22, 2004

Emory Haygood passed away on Saturday, May 22, 2004, at Pauls Valley Hospital after an extensive illness. Emory was born on February 20, 1917 to Henry J. Haygood and Mary Jane Haygood in Henryetta, Texas. He lived in the Lindsay area 42 years.

Emory was of the Baptist faith. He loved to fish, play dominoes and work in the garden. He was a retired farmhand and oilfield worker.

Emory was fortunate enough to have two families, the Haygoods and the Cannons. He lived with the Cannon family for years in Lindsay, Oklahoma and helped raise J.C. and Juanita's family.

His joy was all of his grandchildren and enjoying the holidays with them.

In his younger days he was known for his green thumb in the garden and always had large tomatoes and vegetables. The fact that his gardening skill was once featured in the newspaper pleased him greatly.

Emory is survived by a son, Charles Haygood of Lindsay, Oklahoma; daughters, Patsy Mills of Olathe, Kansas, JoAnn Small, of Titsville, Florida and Loretta Hilton of Shawnee, Oklahoma. He is also survived by two sisters, Hazel Richey of Blanchard, Oklahoma and Pauline McMillan of Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Memorial services for Emory will be held Thursday, May 27, 2004 at 2:00 p.m., at the B.G. Boydston Funeral Home Chapel in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Memorial services are under the direction of B. G. Boydston Funeral Home of Lindsay, Oklahoma.
