“ My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family as they mourn the loss of Andy. Richard, my dearest brother and Theresa, my dearest sister-in-law, you both should have great comfort and peace in knowing you provided Andy with the best care, love, friendship and companionship. The last year was hard for Andy, however, knowing you were both there with him gave him a great sense of peace and security that allowed him to give you another year with him. He bravely fought an illness that only he and God know how difficult it must have been for him. He is at peace now and will look down upon all of you with great pride! My love to all, Debbie
