

Floyd J. Wright

August 25, 1942 - March 25, 2026

Floyd J. Wright was born on August 25, 1942, to Madison Philmore Wright and Anna Tucker (Condit) Wright. He passed from this life on March 25, 2026, in Duncan, Oklahoma, at the age of 83.

Floyd was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, and eventually made his home in Foster, Oklahoma, where he spent the majority of his life.

Floyd met and married the love of his life, Virginia Lindsey, on June 11, 1962, in Cox City, Oklahoma. They spent over 61 loving years of marriage together, until her passing in 2024.

Floyd was a man of many trades, he was as comfortable in the seat of a dozer as he was on the back of a horse. Throughout his career, he worked in construction and in the oilfield, but his true passions were farming and ranching.

Floyd spent countless hours working cattle and found great peace in the life of a farmer. He could often be found spending his free time, keeping up with the stock market and going to auctions.

Floyd knew what it was to work hard and to love big, he was “Papa” to so many. His greatest joy was his family, he cherished every moment spent with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Floyd leaves behind a legacy of hard work, grit, and constant love. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Left to cherish Floyd's memory are his children, Keith Wright of Foster, Oklahoma, and Tina and Danny Kelly of Foster, Oklahoma, his granddaughters, Jessie and Otis Oliphant of Foster, Oklahoma, Madison and Justin Branch of Purdy, Oklahoma, Hunter Kelly of Foster, Oklahoma, and Briar Kelly and Craig Kilcrease of Velma, Oklahoma, his eight great-grandchildren, Dani, Henslee, Maverick, Hesston, Ryett, Ember, Clover, and Slade, his sister, Kathryne and Doyle McWhorter of Dallas, Texas, and his sister-in-law, Sharon Wright of Lindsay, Oklahoma, along with many other Nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Madison and Anna Wright, his wife, Virginia Wright, his brothers, Philmore Wright, Lloyd Wright, and Milton Wright, and his nephews, Jonathan Wright and Judd Wright.

“ When we moved back to Lindsay we asked around who our new neighbors would on the block. We were glad to find out it was him and Virginia they were the best neighbors ever !! I had worked with Virginia at Walmart soo I was excited to know it was people I knew. They were very good quiet neighbors, not long after we were here, Virginia passed away and Floyd was lossed for sure and we were sad for him !! Then he moved closer to the kids due to health reasons and I was sad. Always loved visiting with him he was a nice guy along with his wife Virginia they nice people !! They will be missed !! Prayers for the family at this time.

“ First met Floyd in 1968 when him and dad both worked at Longhorn Supply in Velma. Ran into him off and on all these years and he always had that smile on his face. He was a very good man and always had a great attitude.

“ I have known Floyd since 1963. I spent the summer with his parents and cut broom corn. When I wasn't cutting broom corn I would help Floyd haul hay. I think I got 3 cent a bale. 1 1/2 cent to load the square bales on the truck and 1 1/2 cent to stack them in the barn. We loaded a lot of them in a day by hand. My condolences to the family.

“ Many kind blessings for Floyd's family. Floyd and I were classmates at Doyle for many years. We were in the same graduating class in 1960. Was he a character in school. And we have kept in contact over the years. RIP, Floyd. Joyce Turner Grigsby
