“ To my second family its been a year now since peepaw has passed. Tears still welp up in my eyes when his name is mention. I loved him and ilove meemaw still, I know that he's probally better off now but it still hurts to this day. Its great to have people that loved you like you were thier own child like they did me. I'm still trying to get my act together after his passing and its been really toupn on me and its been almost a year. Mike, Sheri, Jeff, and Jody know that you all were blessed with a wonderful father and mother. One of these days will see peepaw again and maybe he sing us a tune. God bless you all and I love you all. JudySummers

“ Big Fred would come by the insurance office and ask me if everthing was copasetic. For a long time I did not know what he was taling about. One day he told me the meaning. It ment everthing was OK. Well Big Fred...Everthing is OK! Fred was a very special person. People should take lessons from his life. The world would be a better place if they would. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
