“ Donna and Chad, I'm so sorry to hear about Gary & your Dad. I know that no words alone will take the pain and emptiness away but he's in God company now. He's certainly in Heaven keeping everybody in laughter and lifting their spirits if that is possible.I had the honor of getting to know him better when he moved to Luther. Donna I will never forget that day that you brought him into Luther Food Center (that was definitely a blast from the past. From that day on he always kept my employees in a better mood everytime he came in the door. Chad all he could do everytime we talked was praise you. He was very proud of you and your brother. I had not seem him since I moved away from Luther and was shocked to hear of his death and your families loss. I know that God will get all of you through this tough time. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Keep the faith.
