“ This has taken the wind out of all of us with Gary's dying! My heart aches and my depth of love has no limit for all of you. Gary was always giving me a hug and offering refreshment every time I came to care for R.C. I loved visiting and being around all of the family.

“ Veronica and Crystal your Uncle Gary spoke of you two often with great pride and affection. We worked together for many years. My Dad Red Davis had a lot of fun picking on Tojo. I'm sure they are having a grand time in heaven right now. May God comfort all of you with good memories of a good man.

“ Growing up I lived next door to Gary. He was the neighbor that always waved and smiled. I always knew the house next door as RC and Ester's house. I remember since I was very little him coming over to the house and waving asking how we all were. This man was a very sweet man. The passing is very hard. We will always remember him wearing a green shirt with light colored shorts and white tennis shoes walking over. We will miss you!
