“ I'm deeply saddened by Aunt Geri's passing over. She was like a second mother to me and I will miss her very much, but feel lucky and happy to have so many wonderful memories of our times together. Aunt Geri had a heart bigger than Texas and gave her love freely, usually with a big hug and a warm smile. She was a very giving person and would literally give you everything she had, freely and abundantly. Everybody loved her and she touched so many lives with her kindness. I'm sure she is dancing with the angels. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love you guys!

God Bless,
