

Harry James Miller

August 26, 1929 - February 24, 2015

Harry James Miller Jr. was born on August 26, 1929 in Dayton, Ohio to James Miller and Kathryn (Gibson) Miller. He served his country as a Corporal in the United States Marine Corp. service battery 1st Battalion, 10th Marines, 2nd Marine Division FMF. He was stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina and also fought in the Korean War.

After his military service, Harry worked as a truck driver. He loved the Lord and his church, The First Assembly of God in Lindsay, Oklahoma. In his last years, he also attended Connection Church in Blanchard, Oklahoma. Harry enjoyed visiting with people, gardening and writing poetry. He loved making little things to give to others just for the smile. He had a very giving heart, and he loved children and helping them in any way. If Harry saw a need, he would be the first to meet that need. He was always wanting to uplift and bless all with whom he came in contact. Harry went home to be with his Lord on Tuesday, February 24, 2015 at the Lindsay Manor Nursing Home in Lindsay, Oklahoma at the age of 85. He will be truly missed by his many friends and the Lindsay Community.

Harry was preceded in death by his father, James Miller, his mother, Kathryn (Gibson) Auten and one sister, Marilyn Kathryn (Miller) Oswalt.

Mr. Miller's life will be honored by a memorial service given by his friends on Saturday, March 7, 2015 at ten o'clock a.m. at the Connection Church in Blanchard, Oklahoma. His arrangements were under the direction of B. G. Boydston Funeral Home of Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.

“ Harry was such a sweet man. Always making things for all of us associates at Walmart. He had a hard life and I know he loved the Lord. He was sometimes hard to understand but he always let his love for God be known. He will be missed but I know his journey is over now and he is at peace. RIP Harry
