She was an avid financial supporter of The Humane Society, and rescued cats and kittens through the years including her cats Fuzzy and Buffy.

In recent years, she enjoyed filling shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child, a Franklin Graham ministry to provide gifts for impoverished children worldwide. She especially loved wrapping the shoeboxes with colorful wrapping paper so the children would have a beautiful keepsake. She also enjoyed visiting with her Avon customers and helping Connie at The Cottage, where she ate lunch every day at "Helen's Table", as Connie named the table where Helen ate lunch with friends and family. “ Jay,

We would like to express our heartfelt sympathy to you in the loss of your mom. It was a pleasure to have met her and made her acquaintance when Melissa and Wyatt graduated from college at USAO. We wish we could have spent more times in her graces. As we read of your mother's qualities and passions in her life, it's easy to see where Melissa gets hers. Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during these difficult times.
