“ I remember Hardy very well when he had the dry cleaners. While I was in highschool band, I would take my uniform to him on a Thursday for cleaning to have for an important contest on Saturday and he always had it ready for me and looked great! Hardy will be missed by all who knew him. My prayers are with the Hardy family.

“ Morehead family, so sorry to hear about the passing of Hardy. Your family has always been special to the Springman family. Hardy was a hard worker according to my dad. He thought alot of him and the whole family. Treasure the memories, as I am sure you have lots and lots of stories to share with each other. You are in my prayers.

“ To the Morehead family, I was thinking back of watching all of you grow up. You could always count that your family would be sitting at the front of the church on Sunday morning. I know our mothers always wanted to know the secret of how you all were so attentive and quiet during services. Your parents instilled in each of you how wonderful it was to have God in your life. May He keep you in His care during this time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
