“ Homer was a wonderful and caring brother. He has always been like a rock to me and someone I could always count on. I loved him dearly as well as all my brothers and sisters and we will all miss him for a very long time. Every month when we got together for our dinner after he hugged me he would always say Sis how are you I will miss him.

“ Edna,

On behalf of the entire congregation we extend our deepest sympathy to you. Homer will truly be missed by so many people. He was one of the most dedicated members of the church of Christ here in Lindsay. His generosity reached many lives. If we may do anything at all for you please let us know. We love you.

“ To Edna, Lana Sue, and family.....What a shock to hear about Homer. He was one of the friendliest men I ever met in my lifetime. He always did a superb job in giving the announcements when the church gathered, and a more honest man could never be found in securing the church offerings. He was a true deacon of the church in every sense of the word. From what I gather, he must have been doing what he loved the most in working on his farm when the Lord came to take him home. May you all draw nigh unto HIM during this time of sorrowwhere HIS yoke is easy, and HIS burden is light.
