

Imogene "Jean" Bunch

Imogene "Jean" Bunch was born on June 24, 1926 to James Ervin Yarbrough and Viney (Smith) Yarbrough in Lindsay, Oklahoma. She passed from this earth on September 7, 2017 in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Jean's early life was one of hardship and difficult economic circumstances. This instilled in her a depression era toughness which helped carry her through her entire life.

She married Grady Lloyd Bunch on August 11, 1945 in Pauls Valley Oklahoma and they remained married for sixty-nine years until Grady's passing in 2014.

Jean taught School in 1945 and 1946 on a provisional teaching certificate. But Jean was first and foremost a loving wife and a great mother who always put her husband and sons first.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Lindsay for over seventy years. She loved her church and her Sunday School class dearly and rarely missed a service for decades.

She loved to read, grow her plants, and spend time with her family.

Her loving heart and generous spirit will be carried in the hearts of family members forever. Her unselfishness was a shining example to all who knew her.

Jean is survived by her son Kent and wife Frances of Lindsay, her son Dwayne and wife Su of Yukon, and her sisters Ardyth Huffines and Betty Holliday of Oklahoma City.

She loved her grandchildren: grandson Greg Bunch and wife Kim of Yukon and their boys Bryson and Cameron; granddaughter Gretta Rowold and husband Matt of Chantilly, Virginia and their children Kailee and Liam; and granddaughter Mistelle Marie Phillips of Amarillo, Texas.

Jean was preceded in death by her husband Grady, her parents Ervin and Viney Yarbrough, and brothers Dale, J.E., and Gerald.

Her passing has made it much easier knowing of her strong desire to be reunited in Heaven with many loved ones. She spoke often in recent months of being ready to go Home.
