“ J elected as Constable for Mountain Township in Yell County Arkansas for about 14 years. He loved serving his community as their chief law enforcement officer. He experienced high speed chases after thieves, domestic disagreements, speeders, drunks, drug users and others, but his happiness was in the times he was able to help someone in need. He and I would patrol together on weekends when most thing's happened. Our county sheriff, who disliked Constables gave us compliments that houses were burglarized all over the county but not in our areas and said during interviews the suspects stated the Constables are always out in those areas so we skip them. J smiled a big smile on that one. I lost a cousin, but I lost a best friend too.
