

Jay L. Edgar

October 26, 1920 - October 26, 2000

J. L. Edgar, age 80, of Lindsay, OK since 1938, died in his home on October 26, 2000. He was born in Laysain Fields, Texas on August 21, 1920 to Walter Edgar and Maude (Nia) Edgar. J. L. served in the Military during World War II and was a member of the American Legion. He was also a member of the Erin Springs Baptist Church. He was a retired truck driver in the oilfield industry. He enjoyed reading, fishing and raising chickens.

Survivors include his wife, Lee Emma Edgar of the home, they were married on August 9, 1938 in Duncan, OK; grandchildren, Reuben Edgar, Jr., Cindy Cordell, Ronnie Edgar, Doyle Edgar and Sarah Lawson. Great grandchildren, Jessica Edgar, Christopher Edgar, Rachael Edgar, Jacob Edgar, Emily and Issac Lawson. He was preceded in death by two sons, Rayborn and Reuben Edgar; and by both parents.

Funeral arrangements have been made with B. G. Boydston Funeral Home in Lindsay, OK. Services will be on Monday, October 30, 2000 at the Erin Springs Baptist Church at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Troy Taylor officiating. Interment will be in Erin Springs Cemetery with Military Honors by the Lindsay American Legion Post # 23. Pallbearers include Reuben Edgar, Jr., Ronnie Edgar, George Edgar, Richard M. Miller, Jack Ince, Randall Dutton.