

Jenith Harold Young

April 7, 1926 - November 23, 2018

Jenith Harold Young was born April 7th 1926 in Jefferson, Boone County Arkansas to William Riley Young and Eliza Elmeda (Stone) Young. He was the youngest of 6 kids. Harold passed on November 23rd 2018 at the age of 92. Harold's dad moved his family from Arkansas to Luther Oklahoma where he grew up working on the family farm and met his wife Ina Faye Jarvis of Luther. They were married for 71 years.

In 1945, at the age of 19 Harold enlisted in the Merchant Marines where he became 2nd Cook and Baker aboard ship and traveled to places like China and Japan. Once he returned he married Ina Faye Jarvis and soon they moved to to Texarkana, Arkansas where he worked as a deliveryman for Borden Dairy Company. While there his son William was born. Harold moved his family back to Oklahoma where they settled in Oklahoma City and continued to work for Borden. In November 1953 his daughter Elizabeth was born. After leaving Borden Harold opened his own Mobile Service Station selling gas and also servicing vehicles.

Harold later went to work for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints where he attended. He managed the local LDS Bishop's Store House and later became the Janitorial Supervisor over several local LDS churches. After retiring from the Church Harold started a lawn care business where he worked with his grandsons, Aaron and Noel, with additional help from his granddaughter Kristen. He was contracted to mow several of the LDS churches in the area. He took great pride in the quality of his work and was meticulous in managing the grounds of each building.

Harold enjoyed fishing, especially for catfish in the creeks around Luther, spending time with grand kids and great grand kids, mowing lawns and tending his vegetable garden. He also loved Genealogy, telling family stories and connecting with family in other parts of the country.

Harold was preceded in death by daughter Elizabeth Young, grandson Noel Young, Sisters Carmel Boydston and Edith Young. Brothers Dewey, Tom, and Willie Young.

Harold is survived by his wife Ina Young of Oklahoma City, Son William Young of Oklahoma City, Grandson Aaron Young and wife Brandi, Granddaughter Kristen Sisson and Husband Joe, and Kathy Young of Newcastle. Great Grandchildren Alex, Parker, and Zac Young; Kennady, Mya, and Ezra Sisson. Funeral Services for Harold is set to begin at 10:30 A.M. on Tuesday, November 27, 2018 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He will be laid to rest following the cemetery at Luth Cemetery in Luther, Oklahoma.

Services are under the direction of Scott and Angel Wilbourn of Boydston-Wibourn Funeral Home in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made to the family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com
