

Jerre Jesse Burton

November 4, 1939 - May 8, 2024

Jerre (Pop) Jesse Burton was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on November 4, 1939. He grew up in Oklahoma and served in the US Army for 31 years.

Jerre Burton's time in the army was not just a chapter in his life but a source of many captivating war stories he loved to share. His humble nature was evident in the countless acts of kindness he performed, a legacy that continued until his passing. He was of the Apostolic faith for over 32 years and was a current Apostolic Faith Tabernacle of Oklahoma City member.

His legacy lives on through his family. His parents, Harry and Estelle, his sister Patricia (Patty) Denton, and his son Harry Burton preceded him. He leaves a loving family, including four sons, Mark, Jerre, Daniel, and Thomas Burton, and one daughter, Esperanza (Espy) Boswell. His memory is also cherished by his grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Psalm 116:15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants.
