“ To Jessie's family, I worked with Jessie for alot of years at the Lindsay Municipal Hospital, She would never take her turn in the ER, she would say..You and Helen Holland go I will take care of the patients here in the hospital, we would always give in and several hours later we would go back up to the floor, she would be just as happy and everything was done. I guess we all have our calling, we were a team. Jessie was a hard worker, a loving lady, a good nurse and a dear friend. She was a blessing to many. God bless each of you and my prayers are with you.

“ Dear Patty, reading the obituary is like reading a history of the Lindsay area. Being born in Whitebead--that is significant. And then so many generations living in Lindsay. It doesn't matter the age or circumstance for every family death is a loss of a special loved one. Blessings to you and yours.
