“ John... I did not make it back to the last reunion - I do try to keep up a few ways. I suppose this is your father. Many in our class now have lost parents. It is a transition many of us are making. Hoping you've had a good life.... Godspeed... Gayle Noe

“ Ocie & Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I had always had a lot of respect for John and reflect back to the days we worked at MILCHEM. I always looked forward to visiting him at the Dry Cleaners. John was a good father and I know he will be missed. I shall continue to keep all of you within my thoughts through out my life. My God open the doors wide for John because you were a big man among men.

“What a shock today to arrive at dialysis to pick up my aunt and hear the sad news. John and I had a lot of good talks as we waited for you and Pauline to come out of dialysis. I will certainly miss those times. I am SO sorry Ocie! May God wrap you up in his arms and comfort you. Pauline's and my thoughts and prayers are with you through this most difficult time.
