“ Uncle Julian was such a wonderful person. Danny thought the world of him. It never failed everytime we drove by his house Danny would say their's my uncle Julians house. Then he would always go on telling me stories about him. Every story that was told about Julian was always how kind and thoughtful he was. He would do anything for anybody who needed help. Now he's in heaven with Aunt Ann. Be sure to give our love to Grandpa Raymond and Grandma Mickie. On behave of the Marker family we will miss ya'll like crazy and love ya'll from the bottom of our hearts. R.I.P Uncle Julian Watson

“ Julian has been our neighbor for 10 years, and we will miss him very much. He had such a quiet, gentle nature that he made friends easily. Our grandson was drawn to him because Julian would take time to sit and visit with him when he rode his bike over for a visit. He helped us with the garden year-round. Keeping it plowed in the off season was just a thing he enjoyed. When he mowed his lawn, he would mow ours. I will forever remember him sitting on his tractor with a smile on his face. May God's Holy Spirit comfort you now.
