“ I came across this today. Hi Daddy. You have been gone 16 years. Hard to believe. I still miss you as much today, as I did in 2007. Since you have been gone, Gary, Pat, Kathy, Barb, Reesa, and Bob have joined you. Also my beloved Cheyenne is up there too. I hope she sought you out first! She needs someone to love her for us, till we get there. Just know we always think of you, and you are truly loved and missed. Say hello to everyone for us, and give Cheyenne big kisses. Miss you daddy....

“ I came across this link in my email today and was struck by the urge to visit your page. I really can't believe you're gone or that it's been over three years since you left us.

I hope that heaven is a peaceful and happy place, you deserve peace and happiness. :)

“ Hi daddy. It has been a long time since I was on here. Never really able to come back on. It hurts too much still. I don't know if that was you in the car with us that day. I do know that you have been watching over me. Your are getting a great grandson and they are giving him the name Noel for you. I just wanted to make sure you know that and know how much you are still missed to this very day. I love you so much daddy and still cannot believe that I cannot hear your voice. My heart cries sometimes because I miss you so much. I don't know if you ever knew how much I really loved you. Goodbye daddy....

“ Hi Daddy, It has been a year since you went to meet Jesus. I know you must be having a wonderful time in heaven, with your family up there and God, but I just want you to know how missed you are here. Life has been so strange and different without you. A lot of crying and a lot of pain. I wanted to say thank you for being my dad and mom. I couldn't have asked for more. You gave me unconditional love and my childhood with you was the best. I miss you daddy and I love you, be good and I will see you again one day. Bye Daddy.

Love, your daughter, Angela

“ Dear friends and family, Today is one month from the day we lost our beloved daddy. Daddy was loved by so many people and he loved all of us in return. He may be gone, but his spirit remains and he will NEVER be forgotten. Thank you to Lindsay United Methodist Church and the members for taking my family under your wings and helping us through such a difficult time. You are all a blessing to me and all of my family. I still can't believe he is gone. I feel like he is going to walk through the door any minute and say he is home for good. Thank you all for your prayers and love. We have a long journey ahead of us, but with your prayers, we will be able to heal. God Bless You All.

“ We were privileged to get acquainted with Ken just two years ago. We were drawn by his love of his Lord Jesus Christ. As he shared his life story with us, his humblness at how God had resued and saved him was evidient. He had felt the grace of God, and knew a peace he had not known before. We enjoyed Ken, the dinners we had with him, and the e mails we recieved from him after he moved away. He will be remembered fondley. LeRoy and Janice

“ Beloved Daddy,

You will be so missed and you were truly loved by us all. I don't know what I am suppose to do without you. We are all lost and confused and upset. We love you more than anyone in this world and we pray you are watching over us with your love.

Love, your daughter.
