“ I am so sorry for your loss. When you get a chance, please read these two scriptures found at John 5:28 and Revelation 21:4. You will find it comforting to know what Jehovah God assures us. Take care!

“ Reuben Edgar, Jr. you were blessed to have Lee in your life and she also was blessed to have you within her life. It seems very hard today to find such love within a family. May your Grandmother watch over you and may you also find comfort in days to come.
