“ J.R. was not only a very good friend to all of us, but a very loving and giving guy that always had a great sense of humor and a big and welcoming smile when you saw him. He and his wife Glenda were always close at hand in Kremmling, Colorado when my Dad, Charles F. Free Jr. was in his final years. He was always there to stop by, tell jokes, help out wherever he could and just give Charlie a bad time. I know my Dad & Mom will be waiting there in Heaven with a warm and extended hand to greet J.R. and just catch up on things. We will miss you good buddy and thanks for just being there, Thanks for everything that you've done and thanks for being a part of our lives.

Our love goes out to you and the rest of your family.
