“ I am the granddaughter of Mr. Miller, the daughter of Lynn Miller. I live in San Diego, CA with my husband, JC and our two sons: Magnum Cody (2 yrs) and Garrett Logan (7 mths). We were very pleased with the funeral and were thrilled to be there to celebrate my grandfather's life with his friends and family. I know he is in heaven right now with his son, Kent and they are rejoicing together. I'd like Calvary Baptist Church to know how much we appreciate the love and support they displayed throughout this ordeal, especially to all of the members who cooked, cleaned the wonderful meal and babysat the greatgrandchildren during the church and graveside services. So many people were there to say goodbye to a great man of God. I called him PapPaw and will be able to tell my boys what an honest, hardworking, fun-loving, gentle giant their Great PapPaw was. Thank you to my aunt Gale, uncle Freddie and cousin LeAnna for taking such excellent care of MamMa and PapPaw both and for driving MamMa from Houston to Lindsay for the funeral.
