“ Dear Family, I was a classmate of Susan all twelve years at Lindsay. I remember her as a beautiful person...I especially remember her sweet smile, her good nature and her special giggle when she found something particularly funny. May God give you courage for this difficult time, strength to see you through your grief and finally peace knowing she is in our heavenly Father's arms.

“ Sweet would be the best word to describe Suzie. When I moved to Lindsay at age 13 and lived on Creek the Wisener family was the first people I got to know and I always had fun and felt welcomed in their home. Suzie was always an important part of the Class of '69. I will always remember her smile. She probably is in heaven now smiling at her grandma about the day her grandma decided to try skateboarding and broke her arm.
