

Loyd Akins

May 13, 1939 - August 25, 2020

Loyd Akins was born on May 13, 1939, to Elmer and Zola (Courtney) Akins, in Pocasset, Oklahoma. He entered into his eternal rest on August 25, 2020, in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Loyd graduated from Chickasha High School and later married the love of his life Carolyn Akins on December 28, 1956. She preceded him in death on July 5, 1992. Loyd worked his younger years as a milkman and gas station attendant. He later went to work at Soil Conservation as a dam inspector, where he retired in 1994.

Loyd enjoyed sitting on his front porch watching the birds, feeding his cats, and working in his yard. He also had a passion for wood working. Loyd and Carolyn very much enjoyed decorating their entire house for Christmas (much like Clark Griswold) and loved that everyone from town drove by to see it. It was something he continued to do long after the passing of his wife.

Loyd is survived by his five children and nine grandchildren, Steve Akins, and his children, Kyle and Kris Akins, Deborah and Phillip English, and their children, Crystal and Quent English, Laura and Bruce Frye, and their children, Dustin and Heath Frye, Elaine and Mitch Gilreath, and their children, Miranda Ellefson and Trent Gilreath, Brenda and R.D. Patterson, and their son, Austin Hall, ten great grandchildren, and many other friends and family.

Loyd is preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Zola Akins, his wife, Carolyn Akins, and his granddaughter, Amy Barnes.

A grave side service to honor the life of Loyd is set to begin at 11:00 AM, on Friday, August 28, 2020, at Green Hill Cemetery in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Services are under the direction of Scott and Angel Wilbourn of Boydston Funeral Home in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made to the family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com
