“ Kerry and I will forever love Aunt Lura. We will miss all our 'quick' trips to Lindsay to spend time with her. What we would give to spend just one more night at her house and eat her biscuits! We love and miss you, Aunt Lura!

“ I so wanted to talk at your funeral, Aunt Lura but I just wasn't strong enough. I will miss you so much! There is no way to leave all of my memories here on this page but know that they are abundant and beloved. I think every member of your family will miss your cooking and your amazing ability to keep a coffee cup full!!! For me, it's the fried okra!! Send some down when you can. ha Aunt Lura, know that I love you very much and I will miss you terribly. I thought you would be here forever! Love, Mark

“ I loved my great aunt Lura with all my heart. She was such a loving person. I can always remember when ever we stayed with her every morning she would have the biggest breakfast ready for us. Oh my goodness, they were so great. I also can remember all my cousins, sisters, and I playing in her salon downstairs. I loved when she would take us down to her cellar and show us all the canned things that she would grow in her very own garden. She was so proud of them and her garden. She was a great women that I will greatly miss. The great big smile that she never forgot to wear is what I will miss seeing the most. I pray for the best and will always hold the memories of her so close to my heart. My dear Aunt Lura, I will always love you!

“ I so remember Lura when I worked for Fred Simmons when he had his Roofing Company back in 1969. Lura was always so pleasant to be around. I admired both Lura and Fred for let the older gentlemen to live in the small house behind thier home. I felt as though that was such a act of kindness that so many of use do not take up ourself. May God Keep You Safe And Warm LuraRespectfully Leonard Janousek
