

Margie Marie

April 1, 1924 - October 18, 2013

Margie Marie (Attebery) Nunn was born April 1, 1924 in McClain County. She was one of four children born to Clifford E. Attebery and Bessie Mae Rogers. Margie passed from this life October 18, 2013 at her home in Lodi, CA at the age of 89 years.

Margie married "Jay" John C. Nunn, June 23, 1941 in McClain County. After marrying they lived in Oklahoma and California where Jay worked as a member of the Iron Workers Union, until his retirement. Upon retiring, they moved back to Oklahoma and made their home on a ranch outside of Pauls Valley, OK. They raised cattle and loved fishing and picnics with family and friends. Margie loved working in her vegetable and flower gardens and was also a very talented artist, using both oil and water colors. She loved her animals like they were her babies and sheltered them with care.

Although she and Jay were not blessed with children of their own, there was an abundance of nieces and nephews to shower with their love.

When Jay passed away December 27, 1995, Margie sold the ranch and returned to Lodi, CA to be near her family, where she resided until her passing. Margie was preceded in death by her husband "Jay" John C. Nunn, father Clifford E. Attebery, mother Bessie Mae Rogers, brother David Earl Attebery and sister Bonnie Jo Attebery Brooksher.

Margie is survived by her sister Rose Snyder and husband Donald of Lodi, CA and numerous nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
