

Pamela Kaye Boydston

August 21, 1941 - December 4, 2004

Pamela Kaye Boydston passed away at the age of 63 in Hot Springs, Arkansas on December 4, 2004. Pam was born Pamela Dillard to Dave and Oteka Dillard on August 21, 1941, in Lindsay, Oklahoma. She married Les Boydston in Lawton, OK on August 13, 1960.

Our mother is and was the most wonderful mother, wife, counselor, mentor and friend. We give her the highest HONOR in this world for giving and laying down her life for my father, brother, daughter, and her grandchildren. God could not have given us a more special gift in our lives than our "Honey"! She in turn gave us the greatest gift and that was "Jesus"!

Pam retired to Hot Springs Village, Arkansas in 1999, from Woodlands, Texas. She was an active member of the Covenant Church in Carrollton, Texas. She was president of Pharmaceutical Wires in Waco, Texas, and an active member with P.T.A. groups, TGF Bible Study, and country clubs, and various churches. Pam also was a counselor at Potters Clay, Hot Springs, AR. She enjoyed reading, spending time with her grandchildren and studying the word of God. She was a beloved wife and mother and will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Pam received Jesus as her personal savior and lord at nine years old in Muskogee, Oklahoma at St. Luke's Methodist Church.

Pam is preceded in death by her father, Dave Dixon Dillard, Jr., and her daughter, Page Boydston

She is survived by her mother, Oteka Dillard Luttrell, her husband Les Boydston of Hot Springs Village, AR., her son, Tyler Dillard Boydston of Plano, Texas, her daughter, Brooke Kasper of Plano, Texas and two grandchildren, William Cameron Mason III, and Tyler Chase Kasper.

Services for Pam will be Thursday, December 9, 2004, at 1:00 p.m. at Green Hill cemetery in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of B. G. Boydston Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to Pam's family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.
