“ Claude....I am sorry to hear about your dad. I used to deliver Grit newspapers on Thursday afternoons after school to the dealership. He always had a quick word of advise, or maybe a short story about how things were back when. He was a quiet supporter of our school activites, and one of those guys that you learn to appreciate as you get older. He left a good mark in Lindsay, and I hope you and the boys are proud of his heritage today. God bless during this difficult time.

“ Maxine, Claude, we are sorry to lose Paul. He was always a faithful friend to our family, especially to Dad. Henry Fish, who met Paul when Dad began work at Mayfield Chevrolet in 1937.
