“ Danny,

It has been years since I saw you, but your wife was remarkable. She always made me feel important. I remember one time that we drove down from OKC, before we moved back to Lindsay. I was only 5 or 6 and she presented you with a wallet for either your birthday or Christmas before you were married. She always a joy when I would see her as a teenager and I always thought she was a beautiful and happy lady. That has stuck with me for so many years. I know you have children which I have never met, but I truly wish the best for your family, your dad and Tony's family. I live in Chicago, but if I lived closer, I would be at Dawn's funeral. Best regards to the Henson family.
