

Rebecca Lacy

August 6, 1935 - August 6, 2015

Rebecca "Jane" Lacy, age 80, died of natural causes on August 6th, 2015 in Bella Vista, Arkansas.

Jane was born on December 7th, 1934 in Bowden, Georgia to Arnold and Lucille McElroy. She graduated from high school in Anniston, Alabama and went on to a year at Auburn College. While in college, she met the love of her life on a blind date. A young Army officer named, Donald Lacy.

She and Don were married on November 7, 1954 in Anniston, Alabama. The couple had four children together. They spent 20 years in the Army traveling to many spots in the world. They were privileged to have two tours in Germany during their military service. After their military service, they spent several years in Arkansas raising cattle and ranching. They moved back to Don's home town, Lindsay, Oklahoma, in the late seventies and started a business; New Hope Farms. They raised many tasty vegetables, fruits and honey and sold them at markets across southern Oklahoma. They were well known for their fabulous peaches. Don preceded her in death in 2012 after 57 years of marriage.

Jane enjoyed cooking and homemaking. She was a very accomplished artist, utilizing oils, acrylics, and watercolors. Her family and friend will always remember her as a happy and loving person. She was a great mom, and her family will miss her very much.

Jane is survived by her sons: Donald Lacy, Jr., of Harrah, Oklahoma; Robert Lacy, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and Alan Lacy, of Omaha, Nebraska; and her daughter Cynthia Dew of Bella Vista, Arkansas. Jane also leaves behind her beloved grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Jane is preceded in death by her husband Donald W. Lacy, Sr. and her parents Arnold and Lucille McElroy.

Jane's life will be celebrated at a graveside service on Tuesday, August 11, 2015 at 10:00 A.M. at Green Hill Cemetery in Lindsay, Oklahoma, with Rev. Ron King officiating. Services are under the direction of B.G. Boydston Funeral Home of Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made to the family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.
