“ i dated ricky lyn in the 70s in fact we were engaged for a short time. it has been 25 years ive seen him. i was on the net scanning news from back home when i came across his name. i dont know how old he is in the pic above but he certainly didnt change in appearance. he will remain in my memory and heart as one of the sweetest, funniest, considerate, people i have known. my heart and prayers go out to his family and friends and all who were touched by his presence. God bless sandi

“ I don't know who the person is that is writing all the bad things. But let me tell you one thing. Your losers!!!!!! Saying terrible things about Rick. Rick was a wonderful man. He had a heart of gold. The kind of man that would give you his last dollar, shirt, food that he had. His 3 oldest kids are my step kids and I dont appreciate your ignorance on this memorial message line. You should be ashamed of yourself. Give his family a break and some respect Every one has some sin in thier life. God didnt make us all perfect.and the way I see it!!!!!!No one knows exactly what happen to Rick. So keep your mouths shut. If you dont have any nice things to say about him then dont ssat nothing at all!!!!!!! Judy Wiiliams (Summers)

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Ricky was always a joy to be around. In a round about way he actually named my youngest daughter. I can explain that later. I remember when my mother passed he came around often to check on us girls. If any of you need anything or want to exchange stories please feel free to call me. Rachel ask my grandmother for my number.

“ My heart goes out to each and everyone of you!!! I'm not sure what to say except I Love you guys very much you will always be a part of my family, although it was only a short time. Rick loved each one of you so much. I know you knew that. The last time I see him was at Walmart, and he came up to me and said there's my baby girl and hugged me and kissed me on the cheek,never knew that would be the last time or last hug I would ever get from him. Rachel Lynn I love you!! and if you ever need anything I don't care what it is let me know I'm still here for you. I'm in such shock still to hear of his passing. I guess God decided he needed an angel in Heaven to stand at the gate to give out hugs. Family I just want you to know that I still Love each and everyone of you and I pray that God puts his Loving arms around you during this time. Love Very Much!!!
