“ I just want to leave a note to Rob's family that I briefly met him on that fateful Saturday morning along I-44 just east of Springfield, MO. God sent me to be with Rob and James until medical help could arrive. I did all I could to comfort and reassure him that help was on the way.

Please accept my sincere and deepest sympathy in your tragic loss. I have been praying for you (although I do not know you) that God will provide a special measure of comfort and peace in spite of this tragic loss in your lives.

“ Pat,

I am so sorry to hear of Rob's death. We read this in the paper today. I am sorry about Earl also. You have been through so much and I know you are a strong lady. The Lord does not put more on us than we can handle. Be strong and we love you.....

Julie, Kent, Sharon.

Wilma from the courthouse also asked me to tell you she is thinking of you.
