

Roland Dean Jetton

August 22, 1927 - November 5, 2003

Roland "Shorty" Dean Jetton, age 76, of Lindsay, Oklahoma passed away at his home Wednesday morning, November 5, 2003. Shorty was born August 22, 1927 in Gainesville, Texas, Cook County to Ennis Lawton and Roberta Jane (Johnson) Jetton. He was reared and attended schools in Hobbs, New Mexico. Shorty moved to the Lindsay area in 1966. Mr. Jetton owned and operated a service station in the local area, before retiring in 1988. On April 12, 1960 in Fort Worth, Texas he married Nova Morgan. Nova survives in the home. Shorty loved to fish, work on lawnmowers, watch old westerns, and spend time with his grandson, Patrick (Sean) Gillespie.

Shorty is also survived by his daughter, Mary (Anita) Gillespie of Lindsay; two brothers, Carey Drew Jetton and his wife Rosemary of Hobbs, New Mexico and Donald Joe Jetton and his wife, Kay of Texas; and two sisters, Nita Gilbert and her husband, Bobby of Hobbs, New Mexico, and Mary Lou Williamson and her husband, Truman of Hereford, Arizona. He also leaves behind several nieces and nephews.

Graveside funeral services for Shorty Jetton will be 1:00 p.m., Friday, November 7, 2003 at Pooleville Cemetery, south of Elmore City. Brother Bill Love will officiate.

Condolences may be sent via our online website, www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.

com.

Funeral arrangements for Roland "Shorty" Dean Jetton have been entrusted to B.G. Boydston Funeral Home, Lindsay, Oklahoma.