“ Marolyn & family, thank you for sharing your mother with me these past few years. It is easy to see how you became the sweet and loving daughter that you are with a mom like Rosetta to train up a child in the way it should go... May the Good Lord wrap you in His loving arms in this time of need.

“ Charles and Donna and families,...I have many wonderful memories of your mama as I grew up just up the hill from you. She was always kind; and between your mama and my mama, the roads to Erin Springs Baptist and First Baptist were kept hot by them being ever faithful to church, leaving about the same time and coming home about the same time. Many great memories. I have missed your mama the past 2 years and I will miss her even more til I see her again. Love to you all.
