

Sarepta Kendrick Haile

December 27, 1919 - December 27, 2001

Sarepta "Sue" Kendrick Haile, age 82, of Lindsay, OK died on Dec. 27, 2001 in Norman, Oklahoma. She was born on Sept. 18, 1919 in Criner, OK to William Edom Kendrick and Carrie Leona Anderson Kendrick. Sue was born on Criner Road in McClain County, OK. She attended "Dare" Elementary School and Dibble School. She attended college at USAO in Chickasha, OK and University of Central OK in Edmond, OK with a Masters Degree in Education. Sue was a teacher in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico. She was an Educational Consultant for two major textbook companies and Curriculum Director for the Sapulpa School System. Organizations she was active in were Oklahoma Educational Association and Retired Teachers - NEA. She belonged to Delta Cappa Gamma and Kappa-Kappa Iota organizations also. She enjoyed working crossword puzzles and visiting with friends and enjoying her family.

Survivors include one sister, Mildred Henderson and husband, C. W. Henderson of Tulsa, OK and one brother, J. D. Kendrick and wife Carol of Grand Junction, CO. Nine neices and nephew, Mona Thomas of Lindsay, Gene Kendrick of Gilbert, AZ, Ann Bowen of Lindsay, Barbara Schultz, San Antonio, TX, Pat Kendrick, Sapulpa, OK, Joe Kendrick, Grand Junction, CO, Mike Kendrick, Atoka, OK, Dennis Kendrick, Columbia, South Carolina, and Pam Smith, Grand Junction, CO. She also has seventeen Grand nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by both parents, her husband, Jim Haile of Amarillo, TX and brothers and sister, Crystal Kendrick White, William Ewel "Bud" Kendrick and J. C. Kendrick.

Services will be on Monday, Dec. 31, 2001 at 2:00 p.m. in the United Methodist Church in Lindsay with Rev. George Lupton officiating. She will be laid to rest in the Green Hill Cemetery in Lindsay, OK.