

Scott Fulton Stewart

March 14, 1941 - July 3, 2019

Scott Fulton Stewart was born to Homer Aster Stewart and Bernice S. (Walker) Stewart on March 14, 1941 in Lindsay, Oklahoma. He passed from this life on July 3, 2019 in Greenwood, Arkansas, at the age of 78.

Scott was a graduate of the Hughes High School and he spent his working career as a truck driver.

Scott had many hobbies and things that interested him. He was a collector of Coca-Cola memorabilia and clocks, which he also enjoyed tinkering on. He liked horses and mowing his yard. He found fun and competition in Pool Tournaments and he loved to drive a truck.

Left to cherish his memory is his children: Tesha Clark and husband Leonard of Lindsay, Cherokee Christopher Scott Stewart of Poteau, Oklahoma, and Paula Williams and husband Jason of Greenwood, Arkansas; his sister: Maryland Staggs and husband Tal of Lindsay, Oklahoma; his sister-in-law: Joy Stewart of Lindsay, Oklahoma; his uncle: L.C. Stewart of Lindsay, Oklahoma, his grandchildren: Jason Clark and wife Audrea, Summer Cameron and husband Carson, Cheyenne Stewart, Ryker Stewart, Lane Williams, Logan Williams, and Lawson Williams; his great grandchildren: Isaac and Zaiden Cameron; three nieces: Monica Meek and husband Danny, Billie Webb and husband Ray, and DeAnna Jensen and husband Bryan; one nephew: Jeff Staggs and wife Tammy; as well as many other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents: Homer and Bernice Stewart and one brother: Bob Stewart.

A Graveside Service to honor the life of Scott is set to begin at 10:00 AM on Monday, July 8, 2019 at the Green Hill Cemetery in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Services are under the direction of Scott and Angel Wilbourn of Boydston-Wilbourn Funeral Home in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Condolences may be made to the family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com
